

‘CENTRAL AMERICAN INDIGENOUS PEOPLE: CULTURAL HERITAGE’ PHOTO EXHIBITION

ICCR in collaboration with Embassies of Costa Rica, El Salvador, Guatemala, and Panama in India, and the Indira Gandhi National Centre for the Arts (IGNCA), organized a photo exhibition, ‘Central American Indigenous People: Cultural Heritage.’ The exhibition was inaugurated by the Hon'ble Minister of State for External Affairs & Culture, Smt. Meenakshi Lekhi on 13 October 2023.

This photo exhibition was a significant step towards fostering cultural ties between India and Central America, promoting understanding, appreciation, and respect for the cultural diversity that enriches our global community. Through this exhibition, visitors could explore the vibrant cultures and traditions of Central American indigenous communities, while celebrating the importance of cultural heritage preservation.
