

CULTURAL PERFORMANCES BY A 10-MEMBER 'SHREE SAT SANG RAMAYAN MANDALI', A RAMAYAN CULTURAL TROUPE FROM FIJI

ICCR, in collaboration with the Culture Departments of the Government of Uttar Pradesh and Madhya Pradesh, and Guru Govind Singh Indraprastha University, New Delhi, organized vibrant cultural performances of 'Shree Sat Sang Ramayan Mandali' at Ayodhya, Ujjain and New Delhi from March 9-15, 2024.

Shree Sat Sang Ramayan Mandali is based in Lami, Fiji Islands. Since its inception in 1994, the Mandali has been organizing cultural events for the Lami community. Apart from celebrating cultural events, the mandali has also been actively involved in the promotion of art and drama amongst young children and youth. Apart from weekly Ramayan and Sat Sangh sessions for the public, classes for children have also been organized where training is provided to students on recitation of mantras, Bhagawad Geeta and Ramayan, drama, and bhajans.

Maharaja Vikramaditya Research Institute, Bhopal, organized a cultural performance of the Mandali at the prestigious 'Vikram Utsav 2024' in Ujjain on March 9, 2024, in partnership with the ICCR. In Uttar Pradesh, ICCR collaborated with the International Ramayana and Vedic Research Institute, Ayodhya, to organize Mandali's performance at the 'Ayodhya Ramotsav' from March 12-13, 2024. In the national capital, ICCR partnered with Guru Govind Singh Indraprastha University to organize a cultural performance of the Fijian troupe at their university campus in Dwarka on March 15, 2024. These cultural performances were held under ICCR's yearlong Ramayan celebrations on the theme 'Connecting the World through Ramayana 2024'.

