

ICCR STAGES KATHAK LECTURE-DEMONSTRATION TO ENRICH CULTURAL EXPERIENCE FOR LAGOS STATE GOVERNMENT DELEGATES ON INDIA STUDY TOUR

On July 3, 2024, the ICCR, brought a special lecture-demonstration on Indian classical dances to stage, featuring the venerable Kathak artist, Ms. Nalini Asthana. The event was designed for a 35-member delegation from the Lagos State Government in Nigeria, who came to India on a study tour to delve into the country's vibrant cultural and administrative landscape.

Director General ICCR, Shri Kumar Tuhin, welcomed the delegation and provided an insightful introduction to the various activities and initiatives undertaken by ICCR. He brought ICCR's role to the fore in promoting India's culture on an international arena. Ms. Asthana's lecture-demonstration provided the delegates with a gripping journey into the world of Kathak, adding a rich layer to their artistic voyage during the visit.
