

ICCR TEAMS UP WITH DAKSHINAYAN AND DIKSHAMANJARI TO PRESENT TAGORE'S TIMELESS OPERA: "TASHER DESH"

The Indian Council for Cultural Relations (ICCR), in collaboration with Dakshinayan (United Kingdom) and Dikshamanjari (Kolkata), presented a sumptuous performance of "Tasher Desh," the timeless opera by Rabindranath Tagore. The cultural pageant dazzled audiences on 30th August 2024, unfolding its vibrant narrative at the renowned Azad Bhavan Auditorium.

Inspired by "Alice in Wonderland," Tagore's "Tasher Desh" portrayed a powerful satirical critique of rigid class systems, set in a whimsical land where strict regulations suppress human emotions. The magical operetta was woven together by the exceptional talents of Rabindra Sangeet singer, Dr. Ananda Gupta, and Indian classical dancer, Mrs. Dona Ganguly.

By hosting such iconic works as "Tasher Desh," ICCR aims to preserve and showcase the timeless artistic legacy of Indian luminaries like Rabindranath Tagore while also providing a platform for contemporary artistic talents.

The event was graced by Shri Kumar Tuhin, Director General of ICCR, as the chief guest, along with Ms. Anju Ranjan, Deputy Director General of ICCR.
