

ICCR AND THE EMBASSY OF ARMENIA CELEBRATE “UN INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PEACE”

A true reflection of the power of art to bring people together and promote peace across borders took place as ICCR, in collaboration with the Embassy of Armenia in New Delhi and Rotary District 3011, hosted a memorable cultural evening to celebrate the UN - International Day of Peace.

The evening witnessed a stunning performance from the Armenian "Klingen Chamber Ensemble." Their harmonious melodies and elegant presentation resonated deeply with the audience, beautifully capturing the essence of international peace through the universal language of music.

Adding to the splendor of the night, Kathak artist Ms. Richa Jain showcased a multi-cultural performance. Her choreography wove together India's rich artistic heritage with global influences, creating a captivating tribute to the theme of unity in diversity.

The evening was graced by the distinguished presence of Director General ICCR, Ambassador Kumar Tuhin, Deputy Director General ICCR Anju Ranjan, and Ambassador of the Republic of Armenia to India, H.E. Mr. Vahagn Afyan, along with other eminent dignitaries. Their participation underscored the importance of cultural diplomacy in fostering peace and understanding among nations.

