

MRS. K. NANDINI SINGLA STEPS INTO LEADERSHIP AS ICCR'S NEW DIRECTOR GENERAL

November 21, 2024: The Indian Council for Cultural Relations, dedicated to showcasing India's soul through art and heritage, began a fresh journey under the leadership of Mrs. K. Nandini Singla as its Director General.

A distinguished career diplomat, Mrs. Singla succeeds Shri Kumar Tuhin, whose tenure significantly strengthened the Council's role in inspiring cross-cultural collaborations with international partners. Shri Tuhin's leadership was marked by impactful initiatives that further reinforced India's soft power worldwide.

With nearly three decades of distinguished service in the Indian Foreign Service and a profound understanding of international affairs and multicultural dynamics, Mrs. K. Nandini Singla brings extensive expertise to her role. Prior to joining ICCR, she served as the High Commissioner of India to Mauritius for four years, where she was instrumental in enhancing bilateral relations.

The ICCR family welcomes Mrs. K. Nandini Singla and looks forward to her leadership in charting a dynamic and impactful course for the organization. Her varied diplomatic experience is expected to drive the institution to new milestones in its mission to highlight the richness of India's heritage and nurture people-to-people connectivity.

