- Five new Regional Offices were formally inaugurated viz. in Bhopal, Jammu, Patna, Ahmedabad and Srinagar during 2012.
- The Council reprinted a revised edition of its publication titled “India Sus Danzas Clasicas” by Ms. Myrta Barvie and also supported the publication of the “Ramayana” in Arabic language by ‘Abu Dhabi Authority for Culture & Heritage’.
- The scholarship programme of the Council is an important component of ICCR’s activities. In 2012-13, the Council offered 3334 scholarship slots to nationals of different countries mainly from neighbouring, African and Commonwealth of Independent States (CIS) countries. Additionally, many welfare activities including summer/ winter camps for International Students and celebration of International Student’s day at the time of Maulana Azad’s birthday were also undertaken.

3. The Activities of the Council

I. Scholarship and Welfare of International Students

The Council administered 3334 scholarships during 2012-13 under various schemes for foreign students to pursue under-graduate, post-graduate and doctoral programmes as well as professional courses such as Engineering, Pharmacy, Accountancy, Business Administration and Management, etc. The thrust of the scholarship programme is towards developing nations with a special focus on India's neighbours. The Council administered 24 scholarship schemes during the year; 8 from its own budget and the rest on behalf of various Territorial Divisions of Ministry of External Affairs/ other agencies, covering students from more than 120 countries.

Activities regarding the Scholarships include:-

International Students Festival

To commemorate the 124th Birth Anniversary of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad, the First Education Minister of Independent India and the Founder President of the ICCR, the Council organized the “XX International Students Festival” called “Friendship through Culture” in November, 2012 at Siri Fort Auditorium, New Delhi. International Students community from twenty countries participated enthusiastically in this event and presented glimpses of their traditional and varied cultures. The Council's Regional Offices and some Indian Missions abroad also celebrated this Festival.

Sumptuary Allowance:

The Council released Sumptuary Allowance to International Students Advisors of various Universities hosting a considerable number of ICCR's scholars, in acknowledgement of their important role in ensuring the welfare of these scholars.

Summer/Winter Camps:

The Council organized ten summer camps during May-June 2012 and fifteen winter camps during December-January 2012-2013 for the benefit of the foreign students. Details of scholarship schemes are given at Annexure-IV.

II. Indian Cultural Centres Abroad

The primary objective of the Council is to establish, revive and strengthen cultural relations and mutual understanding between India and other countries in order to promote awareness and appreciation of India's composite cultural heritage abroad. The Council has been attaching great importance to the implementation of its programmes & activities in South Asia. The Council is maintaining 35 full fledged Cultural Centres as on 31 March, 2013 and two sub-centres.

These are located in Cairo (Egypt), Berlin (Germany), Port Louis (Mauritius), Paramaribo (Suriname), Georgetown (Guyana), Jakarta (Indonesia), Moscow (Russian Federation), London (U.K.), Astana (Kazakhstan), Tashkent (Uzbekistan), Durban and Johannesburg (South Africa), Port of Spain (Trinidad & Tobago), Colombo (Sri Lanka), Dushanbe (Tajikistan), Kuala Lumpur

(Malaysia), Suva (Fiji), Tokyo (Japan), Kathmandu (Nepal), Kabul (Afghanistan), Beijing (China), Bangkok (Thailand), Abu Dhabi (UAE), Dhaka (Bangladesh), Mexico City(USA), Dar-es-Salaam (Tanzania), Sao Paulo (Brazil), Yangon (Myanmar), Seoul (South Korea), Prague (Czech Republic), Budapest (Hungary), Male (Maldives), Riyadh (Saudi Arabia), Thimphu (Bhutan), The Hague (The Netherlands), as well as 2 Sub-Centres at Bali (Indonesia) and Lautoka (Fiji).

During the financial year 2012-2013, the Council has taken initiative to establish a series of Indian Cultural Centres to expand our cultural reach and promote India's "Soft Power" abroad. Under its proposed expansion plan, the Council is planning to open 15 Cultural Centres within two years time in our immediate neighbourhood, the extended neighbourhood, in P-5 capitals & in Africa and Latin America subject to additional allocation of funds.

Through regular interaction and guidance for the Indian Cultural Centres, the Council has been able to increase both the number of programmes being organised, as well as the diversity of events. The objective has been to make our Cultural Centres hubs for promoting Indian Culture through not only classes in dance and music, but also by organizing exhibitions of art & sculpture, literary events on philosophy, history, sociology, economic trends, cinema in India etc. by local experts and visitors from India. A number of Cultural Centres have started new activities such as Fusion Music events, Book Launches, Kavi Sammelans etc. The India-based teachers deployed abroad have been encouraged to do "outreach activities" including visits to other cities and joint programmes with local institutions. Local resources are being utilized increasingly, such as using local experts not only to teach Indian dance, music, yoga, etc. but also to give Indian performances as these are the much more cost effective. Some of the Cultural Centres are also offering Hindi classes to the local populace.

Emphasis has been attached to providing intellectual inputs by organizing Conferences and Seminars and setting up Chairs. Many of our Centres, which were earlier following a set routine of giving classes in dance & music, have now become more pro-active and are organizing many more varied and high profile events. Several Cultural Centres have also organised large scale and multi-faceted festivals.

Details of Indian Cultural Centres are given at Annexure-V.

III. Chairs of Indian Studies Abroad

The Council, in consultation with Indian Missions abroad, has established Chairs of Indian Studies in various foreign universities/institutes. The purpose of these Chairs, apart from educating foreign students about India, is to become a nucleus around which Indian Studies could develop in academic institutions abroad. The academics/ scholars deputed to these Chairs not only teach courses related to India, but through other academic activities like research guidance, seminar coordination, publications, and delivering public lectures, develop scholarly interactions with the academics of that country and assist in disseminating information and a better appreciation of various India related issues.

The Council has 108 chairs of which 35 are for teaching of Indian languages like Hindi (25 Chairs, of which 11 are manned by school level teachers instead of Professors), Sanskrit (7 Chairs), Tamil (2 Chairs) & Bengali (1 Chair). The remaining 73 Chairs are for teaching of various humanities and social science subjects across the spectrum of socio-cultural, political, academic studies such as History, Economics, International Relations, Philosophy, Buddhist Studies, Literature, Tagore Studies and Cinema etc.

The 108 Chairs include 14 new Chairs located in Australia (2 Chairs), Bangladesh, Belgium, Canada, China (2 Chairs), Germany, Ireland, Jamaica, Myanmar, Sweden, Thailand and Ukraine for which MoUs were signed during 2012-13, but operationalization will be in the next financial year subject to additional allocation of funds.

Details are given at Annexure-VI.
